
LE PEN SWEEPING TO POWER IN FRANCE

Description

MARINE LE PEN IS EXPECTED TO WIN TOMORROW'S ELECTION IN FRANCE WITH MORE THAN 2/3rd MAJORIT

Like Joan of Arc, who led the French army to victory over the British during the Hundred Years' War, French's National Front leader Marine Le Pen is leading a GLOBAL REVOLUTION against the corporate GLOBALISTS even as she is predicted to sweep to power with more than 2/3rd majority in Sunday's election in France.

The rationale behind predicting the victories of Narendra Modi (Indian Prime Minister), Donald Trump, Marine Le Pen is explained in this article.

Sweeping to Power with 2/3rd Majority

2017 is no French election but just a
GLOBAL REVOLUTION

When we make predictions, we form ideas about the present and future based on what we've already seen or done. Here it is the philosophy of my first book 'STORY OF MAN: LAYMAN', published way back in 1990, that led me (John Muthukat is my Facebook profile and author name M. J. John) to predict many global developments like the victories of Narendra Modi (Indian Prime Minister), Brexit, Donald Trump, Marine Le Pen way back in 1990

How my two books, first book, 'STORY OF MAN: LAYMAN', published way back in 1990, and the second book, 'LIFE ON MELTDOWN' published in March 2014, are testimony to their prophetic accuracy. Surprisingly, my studies since the last 30 years were concentrating on the impending COLLAPSE OF INDUSTRIAL CIVILIZATION, from its roots. And most of my inferences on post-modern developments are born out of this logic.

Released by then Indian Prime Minister Chandra Shekhar in January 1991, my first book 'STORY OF MAN: LAYMAN' elicited many press reports and reviews in the national media during 1991. Then American ambassador to India, in a letter to the author, remarked this book as "fascinating". Story of Man–Layman later proved to be a document of prophetic accuracy, as this book hinted about almost all major global events that took place from 1991 till today, including the ongoing 'Western Revolution'.

How this author accurately predicted about everything important in modern society, in his first book, Story Of Man–Layman back in 1990, and also in his second book, Life On Meltdown in 2014, is explained in the case of elections of Narendra Modi (Indian Prime Minister) and Donald Trump (American President) below:

PREDICTION ABOUT INDIAN PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA MODI

Narendra Modi is the most unique personality that India has seen in 65 years of its independence. He is the best 'administrator-politician' India has seen. Gujarat, the state which he ruled for 10 years, has become synonymous with possibilities, change and energy. And Gujarat has become synonymous with Modi. Through these kind of thinking, I saw in him the great aspirations Swami Vivekananda, Subhash Chandra Bose and Gandhi all rolled into one

At this vital global situations of mankind, it was my heightened expectations from this great leader that I predicted his coming to power as India's Napoleon Bonaparte in my latest book LIFE ON MELTDOWN published in March 2014 by Layman Books, some two months before the Indian Parliamentary Election and counting of votes on May 16, 2014.. VICTORY OF DONALD TRUMP PREDICTED IN 1990

How this author, a LAYMAN residing in a far away village in India predicted, in 1990, and repeated it on 2nd November 2016 in my FB post, a LANDSLIDE VICTORY for Donald Trump is explained here: <https://www.facebook.com/john.muthukat/posts/10207155464187059>

FUTILE CRY OF THE GLOBALIST MEDIA — "IMPEACH PRESIDENT TRUMP"

Time Magazine, on Feb 07, 2017, came out with an article — Why Congress Should Impeach Donald Trump — and calling for his impeachment: <http://time.com/4658633/impeach-donald-trump-congress/>

But how can the GLOBALIST'S TIME magazine claim to write a word about Donald Trump when it miserably forfeited all its rights of reading peoples' minds by going almost 90% wrong in predicting 'victory' for Hillary Clinton (and defeat for Trump) till the counting of votes on 8 November 2016, and was not ashamed even to come out with a cover page declaring Hillary Clinton as American President on 8 November 2016.

TIME magazine, the world's top news magazine, which was so confident of Hillary becoming the American President till the last vote counting day on 8 November 2016 that the very cover page of this prestigious magazine came out with 'MADDAME PRESIDENT', in the hope of making another history, and the magazine making a news scoop. However, on the contrary, this 'layman' author was so confident of Trump becoming the American President that I published my blog with the title — TRUMP WINNING BY A LANDSLIDE MAJORITY — with designed image of Trump winning a landslide victory, a week in advance of the vote counting day, precisely on 02 November 2016.
